Chilmington Launch Event at Ashford Museum Annexe

Saturday 26th October | 11am to 4pm

Ashford Museum Annexe, 57 High Street, Ashford, TN24 8SG

Drop in to Ashford Museum's annexe to discover more about the archaeology of Chilmington. Find out how this community project will change and improve our present understanding of the area. There will be pop-up displays and crafting activities for children based around the nationally important Iron Age warrior burials at Brisley Farm. This event is suitable for all ages.

Free: no need to book, just drop in!

Chilmington Mini-Lectures at Ashford Museum Annexe

Saturday 26th October | 4.30pm to 6pm

Ashford Museum Annexe, 57 High Street, Ashford, TN24 8SG

Join the Chilmington Community Archaeology Team and a selection of archaeological experts for a wine reception and a series of lectures focussed on Chilmington's ancient past. Meet like-minded people and find out more about your local area! We will present the entirety of Chilmington's rich archaeology and history, from the prehistoric period through to World War II. This event is free and open to everyone. It is primarily aimed at adults, but younger guests with a keen interest are most welcome. Ticketed but free! Scan to book or visit Eventbrite: <https://www.eventbrite.com/e/the-chilmington-green-archaeology-project-launch-event-tickets>
