TTRS tournament Y5/6

Edie B in Year 5 has competed in the Kent Swimming Championships over the last two weekends.

Edie won gold in the 10/11 year old at 200m backstroke, and silver in the 100m backstroke (narrowly missing gold by 1/100th of a second!)

She was also placed in the finals on 100m/200m and 400m front crawl and 200m Individual Medley.

Congratulations Edie, this is an amazing achievement!

Six girls from year 5 volunteered their morning and lunchtime play to help tidy and add new books to our school library.

They showed a real sense of community, supporting the school with their kindness.

Thank you Ava, Emily, Thea, Dottie, Edie and Elsie.

They were each given a token from Mrs Mummery to use in our book vending machine.

Last weekend, Everly in Year 1 took part in a Gymnastics competition.

Everly performed her routine and came 3rd place. She was very keen to show her class the rosette and medal that she won.

Congratulations to a future GB Olympic gymnast!

On Thursday, Year 6 took part in a Journalism Workshop. In the two-hour session they had an introduction to different types of journalism, an insight into a day in the life of a football journalist. They analysed what makes a good interview and planned their own questions!
