Spirituality Reflection

How can you be the kind of friend who helps someone feel less alone, even when you cannot solve their problem?

Reminders

As the colder weather is now here, please ensure that your child brings the following items to school every day:

- A named jumper/cardigan/fleece
- A named waterproof coat, regardless of whether rain is forecast
- Named gloves, a hat and a scarf, when needed

The weather can change throughout the day, and we want to ensure that all children stay warm, dry and comfortable when playing and learning outdoors.
Please make sure that all items are clearly labelled with your child's name to help prevent them from getting lost or mixed up.

A huge thank you from Pastor Ian Fowkes for all of our wonderful Harvest Festival donations. He was incredibly grateful for the generosity shown by our whole school community.

A huge congratulations to Zara and Daniel in Year 5, who both successfully passed their 2nd Dan Black Belt grading with KLUK.

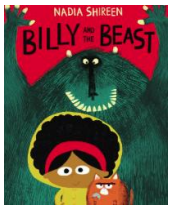

Zara and Daniel have also shown great generosity by raising an incredible £500 between them for brain tumour charity fundraising.

Well done, Zara and Daniel! What a fantastic achievement and a wonderful example of determination, perseverance and kindness.

Weekly Book Recommendations

KS1 – Billy and the Beast by Nadia Shireen. When a super nasty beast threatens to goggle up her forest friends, fierce and ingenious heroine Billy resolves to try and save them. But will she be able to defeat the monster and save the fluffy bunny rabbits from a bubbling stew? With clever and catchy text and bold illustrations, this is a memorable scary, but not too scary, bedtime read.

KS1 – The Hodgeheg by Dick King-Smith. Max the hedgehog lives on the wrong side of the road from the park, where the lily pond and tasty slugs are waiting. After a bump on the head muddles his words, he still refuses to give up on finding a safe way access. A funny animal story for 5–8-year-olds, it works well for early independent reading.

KS2 – Wildlands by Brogen Murphy. After an unexpected stop on the London to Glasgow train, thirteen-year-old Astrid and her younger sister Indie are left inside the Wildlands, a vast rewilding project where humans are banned and wolves, lynx and bison roam free. With only a rucksack, a phone without signal and each other, they must find a way out. This tense, thought provoking adventure combines survival stakes, family friction and questions about rewilding and responsibility.
